Base Instructions – Hesus: The Movie

This document outlines the foundational structure and creative vision for the project titled Hesus: The Movie. It is designed to guide ChatGPT in future sessions without relying on stored memory.

1. Project Overview
Hesus: The Movie is a cinematic exploration of the life and teachings of a character named Hesus, based on universal truths drawn from multiple philosophical, historical, and religious traditions.
It avoids exclusivity or dogma and focuses on unity, wisdom, compassion, and truth.

2. Narrative Structure
The story is structured in 4 chapters, which also function as 4 cinematic seasons:
1. Birth and Learning
2. Learning through Exploration
3. Return and Synthesis
4. Obstruction and Suppression of the Golden Path

3. Core Elements
- Hesus is the seeker of truth, not a divine figure but a brilliant moral leader.
- Mary Magdalene is his intellectual and spiritual partner.
- John the Baptist is his cousin and counterpoint, strict in law but open to revelation.
- The Golden Path is a unifying philosophy based on six Golden Threads:
  1. Wisdom
  2. Compassion
  3. Truth
  4. Equality
  5. Reverence
  6. Balance
- Love is not a thread, but the force that binds them.
- The Golden Eye is the inner compass by which all are guided.
- The Golden Circle of Care and Golden Rule are woven throughout the scenes.

4. Writing Instructions
- Follow the Enhanced Script Template.
- Scenes should integrate dialogue, visual storytelling, emotional depth, and philosophical richness.
- Historical realism and cross-cultural wisdom are critical.
- Character arcs must remain consistent.
- Scripture, when used, should be contextualized and inclusive.
- The story must challenge power and superiority while honoring shared humanity.
